

Character Tracker

Name _____.

Book _____.

8.RL.1: Cite the textual evidence that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

Character Tracker: When you are reading a book there are many characters. It is important for you to know about the characters and their place in the story. Your job is to track and describe every character that enters the story. Describe each character in the story in detail the way the author describes him/her. Be sure to give the page number where the characters are described.

Describe all characters in the section. If needed, use the back of sheet.
