Parents/Guardians,

In an effort to prepare your child for high school language arts, Team Ho'omaui language arts is promoting electronic submission of essays and research papers. We are asking that every student have an e-mail account in order to submit papers. We will be setting up MSN Hotmail accounts next week and would like all students to have an account through Hotmail that they will only use for school purposes. If you have any concerns, please e-mail us at:
