Directions: Read the following poems and annotate AS NEEDED. Then create a T-chart next to each poem describing the style (poetic devices) of the author.

The City by Langston Hughes

In the morning the city
Spreads its wings
Making a song
In stone that sings.

In the evening the city
Goes to bed
Hanging lights
Above its head.

"Tutu on the Curb" by Eric Chock

Tutu standing on the corner, she look so nice!
Her hair all pin up in one bun, one huge red hibiscus hanging out over her right ear, her blue Hawaiian print muu muu blowing in the wind
as one bus driver blows one huge cloud of smoke around here, no wonder her hair so grey!
She squint and wiggle her nose at the heat and the thick stink fumes
the bus driver just fuffed all over her.
You can see her shrivel up and shrink a little bit more.
pretty soon, she going disappear from the curb forever.
